

Λεξικογραφικὸν ἔργον ἀνώνυμον

Lexicographical Work Anonymous I: Rhetorical and Grammatical Lexica

eul_aid: vtu

Period: Ὀψιμαρχαία Late Antique
Dialect: Μικταὶ διάλεκτοι Mixed Dialects
Domain: Γραμματική Grammar
Format: Πεζός Prose

Life

The anonymous compiler or compilers of the Lexicographical Work Anonymous I cannot be identified. The work is a product of the scholarly grammatical traditions of Late Antiquity, a period spanning from the 2nd to the 6th century CE, during which grammarians actively systematized classical Greek language and literature.

Works

While the work is designated as having a count of six, no specific titles for six distinct works by this anonymous figure are attested. Such lexica from this era are typically known by generic titles like Lexicon or by manuscript names, and approved sources do not enumerate a set of six under this specific anonymous designation.

Significance

This anonymous lexicon is significant for the history of scholarship and textual transmission. It served as a reference tool for understanding obscure words in classical texts and preserves fragments of lost works, variant readings, and interpretations from earlier commentators, forming a crucial link in the chain of ancient scholarship.

Works (6)

- Ἀνώνυμος Ἀντιαττικιστής · Anonymous Anti-Atticist · 63 passages
- Συλλογὴ χρησίμων λέξεων ἐκ διαφορῶν ῥητόρων καὶ · Lexicon of Rhetorical and Philosophical Terms · 46 passages
- Συλλογὴ χρησίμων λέξεων ἐκ διαφορῶν ῥητόρων καὶ · Lexicon of Rhetorical Terms · 438 passages
- Δικῶν ὀνόματα · Names of Lawsuits · 29 passages
- Περὶ Συντάξεως · On Syntax · 81 passages
- Γλωσσῶν Ῥητορικῶν · Rhetorical Glosses · 141 passages